

Senate Health, Education, Labor & Pensions Committee

Democrats	Republicans
Sen. Bernie Sanders (I-VT), Chair	Sen. Bill Cassidy (LA), Ranking Member

Sen. Tammy Baldwin (WI)	Sen. Lisa Murkowski (AK)
Sen. Christopher Murphy (CT)	Sen. Mike Braun (IN)
Sen. Tim Kaine (VA)	Sen. Roger Marshall (KS)
Sen. Maggie Hassan (NH)	Sen. Mitt Romney (UT)
Sen. Tina Smith (MN)	Sen. Tommy Tuberville (AL)
Sen. Ben Ray Lujan (NM)	Sen. Markwayne Mullin (OK)
Sen. John Hickenlooper (CO)	Sen. Ted Budd (NC)
Sen. Ed Markey (MA)

(Notes:

1. The outcome of the Pennsylvania Senate race has been determined with challenger Dave McCormik (R) having unseated incumbent Senator Bob Casey (D).
2. With the flipping of four senate seats in the 2024 Elections, the Republicans have gained control of the upper chamber and will be in the majority in the 119th Congress. At that time, it is likely that Senator Bill Cassidy (LA) will become the Chairman of the Senate HELP Committee and Senator Bernie Sanders (VT) will be the Ranking Member.
3. The change in control will also likely mean that the number of seated members for each party will flip as well. This suggests that the Republicans will add at least one or two more members and that the Democrats – with the potential departure of Sen. Bob Casey - may not make any additions to their membership.)

Rep. Brandon Williams (NY)
Rep. Erin Houchin (IN)
Rep. Michael Rulli (OH)

(Notes:

1. Current E&W Committee Chairwoman Virginia Foxx (NC) is term limited and will not return as Full Committee Chair for the 119th Congress. This leaves the gavel open to an internal Republican caucus vote to determine the next Chair. Three senior members of the Committee in the majority are running for the Committee’s top position – Joe Wilson (SC), Tim Walberg (MI), and Burgess Owens (UT).
2. While the Republicans have retained control of the U.S. House of Representatives, there will be at least five, and possibly six, seats on the E&W Committee vacated as a result of Representatives who either retired to seek other office, did not seek re-election, were unsuccessful in their bid for re-election in the 2024 Elections, or have recently been nominated by President-elect Trump for a position within the Administration. Similarly, four Democrats also fall into this category. Combined this opens up either nine or ten seats on the Committee to be filled in January. Many of the seats on both sides of the aisle are likely to be filled by new, incoming elected officials who won races in the 2024 Elections.
3. “Representative Elise Stefanik (NY) will vacate her seat as a member of the U.S. House of Representatives, and therefore her E&W Committee membership, as she has been selected for appointment as the U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations by President-elect Donald Trump.)

Senate Committee on Veterans Affairs

Democrats	Republicans
Sen. Jon Tester (MT), Chair	Sen. Jerry Moran (KS), Ranking Member*
Sen. Patty Murray (WA)	Sen. John Boozman (AR)
Sen. Bernie Sanders (I-VT)	Sen. Bill Cassidy (LA)
Sen. Sherrod Brown (OH)	Sen. Mike Rounds (SD)
Sen. Richard Blumenthal (CT)	Sen. Thom Tillis (NC)
Sen. Mazie Hirono (HI)	Sen. Dan Sullivan (AK)
Sen. Joe Manchin (WV)	Sen. Marsha Blackburn (TN)
Sen. Kyrsten Sinema (I-AZ)	Sen. Kevin Cramer (ND)
Sen. Maggie Hassan (NH)	Sen. Tommy Tuberville (AL)
Sen. Angus King (I-ME)

(Notes:

1. Four of the ten Democratic Senators either did not seek re-election or lost their bid for re-election in the 2024 Elections. With Senate Committee Chair Jon Tester losing his re-election bid the incoming minority leadership position is up for grabs. Senator Patty Murray (WA) is next in seniority, but already holds the top Democratic position on the coveted Senate Appropriations Committee and is not likely to relinquish it. Next in line is Independent Senator Bernie Sanders (VT), who currently holds the top spot on the Senate HELP Committee. Will he relinquish the minority leadership position over Health, Education, Labor and Pensions to lead Veterans Affairs? It remains to be seen. If not, the next in line – before any new additions to the Committee - is Senator Richard Blumenthal (CT). Lots to unpack here...
2. With the flipping of four senate seats in the 2024 Elections, the Republicans have gained control of the upper chamber and will be in the majority in the 119th Congress. At that time, it is likely that Senator Jerry Moran will become the Chairman of the Senate VA Committee. As noted above, the Ranking Member seat will likely be decided early next year.
3. The change in control will also likely mean that the number of seated members for each party will flip as well. This suggests that the Republicans will add at least one more member and that the Democrats – due to the departure of four members may only replace three positions.)

(Notes:

1. With the control of the U.S. House of Representatives remaining in Republican control, and with only one Republican having left the Committee, as a result of retirement, the VA Committee's membership isn't likely to change very much at all.
2. Leadership on both sides of the aisle is likely to remain the same with Rep. Mike Bost (IL) retaining the gavel as Chair and Rep. Mark Takano (CA) retaining his position as Ranking Member.)
